3G/HSDPA

Product Information

Vox Datapro enables you to experience the benefits of high-speed data connectivity and mobility through Vodacom's HSDPA network. Using a Vodafone 3G Broadband Mobile USB Modem, you can browse the internet, access your company network and email, as well as download online entertainment applications such as music and games at superior data speeds. Giving you the flexibility to access the internet, wherever you are, 3G/HSDPA gives you instant access to seamless, wide- area coverage and speeds of up to 1.8Mbps.

Features

Under perfect conditions, HSDPA downlink speeds are 1.8Mbps, but expect speeds of between 400Kbps and 800Kbps with peaks of approximately 1.4Mbps.

Benefits

- Provides increased mobility, allowing you to take the internet and your company network with you wherever you go
- Enables you to access the internet and networks at super fast broadband speed
- Provides wide area coverage - Vodacom has 3G/HSDPA coverage throughout its 3G network providing the widest coverage in the country
- International roaming on 3G/HSDPA is also possible through Vodacom's partnership with Vodafone, providing high speed data access in all Vodafone partner networks that offer HSDPA
- It's simple and easy to set up - you don't need an internet service provider or to search for a connection point
- Improves responsiveness - the latency of interactive applications such as chat and online gambling, is reduced with HSDPA, making these applications respond quicker
